

Learner's Permit Restrictions

- ⚠ Must be at least 16 years old.
- ⚠ No driving alone. You must have a qualified trainer seated next to you at all times.
- ⚠ No passengers allowed in the vehicle besides a qualified trainer.
- ⚠ Seat belts must be worn by everyone present in the vehicle.
- ⚠ No cell phones or hand held devices with a video screen - including GPS!

Eligibility

FOR 16-17 YEAR-OLDS

16-17

You must hold your permit for at least 120 days (if completed commercial or secondary training) or 180 days (if completed training at home with a Qualified Trainer and completed the 8 Hour Safety Course which includes 2 hour Parent Class) before you can test for your license.

18+

18+ YEAR-OLDS

You must hold your permit for 90 days & complete the 8 Hour Safety Course before you can test for your license.

FAQ

Who can be a Qualified Trainer?

Anyone at least 20 years of age, that has a minimum of 4 years of driving experience and no suspensions in the last 4 years.

Can I practice driving with my parent if they do not have a license?

Nope. You can only practice with a qualified trainer or a licensed driving

Who else can be in the car with me?

Only a qualified trainer or a licensed driving instructor giving instruction, and others accompanying that instructor, are permitted in the vehicle while you are learning to drive.

What are the consequences for driving alone with a permit?

If caught, you will have an extended waiting time before you can apply for a license, and you can also be issued a fine.